a workplace mentor will be assigned from within your business. This ensures that knowledge and skills are reinforced throughout the program.

BSB40615 Certificate IV in Business Sales

Overview:

This qualification reflects the role of individuals working across a range of business sales contexts. They have well-developed sales skills and typically report to a more senior business sales leader.

Individuals at this level are able to build client relationships and business networks, have knowledge of the products or services offered by their organisation, and are capable of presenting, securing and supporting sales solutions to customers or their team. Duties may include conducting market research, developing and implementing sales plans, and general administrative tasks that benefit the team.

Course delivery & structure:

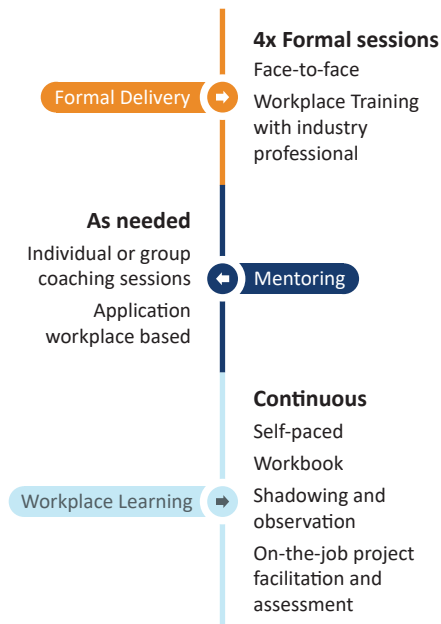

Delivery underpins our philosophy that work is the learning and learning is the work. We deliver a combination of formal training sessions and mentoring. We utilise a mix of on-the-job observation and questioning, and workplace based projects throughout our assessment tasks.

Participants are encouraged to challenge their existing knowledge and extend their boundaries whilst they expand their skill base.

To successfully attain the BSB40615 Certificate IV in Business Sales, students are required to complete a total of ten (10) units of competency, comprising of:

- 4 core units, and;
- 6 elective units, of which:
 - 4 units must be from the elective units over page;
