

Apply awareness of dangerous goods and hazardous materials requirements

Course Overview

This course provides essential training for individuals working in transport, logistics, and warehousing who need to understand the risks and regulations associated with dangerous goods and hazardous materials. Participants will learn how to identify, handle, and comply with safety requirements to ensure a secure working environment.

Course Duration

1-day intensive training providing theoretical and practical knowledge

Why Choose Us?

- Industry-relevant training aligned with safety and compliance standards
- Delivered by expert trainers with practical industry experience
- Custom-tailored onsite training to meet your workplace needs

☎ 0459 150 848

🌐 flexibletrainingsolutions.com.au

✉ sales@ftspl.com.au

Learning Outcomes

By completing this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify different classes of dangerous goods and hazardous materials
- Understand legislative and regulatory requirements for handling and transporting hazardous substances
- Recognise the risks associated with dangerous goods and implement appropriate safety measures
- Apply correct procedures for storage, transport, and incident response

Course Structure & Pricing

- Group-based training – designed for workplace teams to enhance safety awareness
- Onsite only – we bring the training to your location for convenience
- Up to 10 participants per session – ensuring quality training and engagement
- $2,200 per group session (up to 10 participants)
- Covers the nationally recognized unit:
 - TLIF3091 – Apply Awareness of Dangerous Goods and Hazardous Materials Requirements

MSF 80/1 20/02/2025