Certificate III in Business to Business Sales

Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals working in a position selling to another business, and particularly into retail environments. They generally have titles such as Sales Officer/Representative, Account/Territory Representative.

Due to the retail units required for completion as core units, it isn't generally suitable for individuals that work selling into a non-retail setting.

Individuals at this level often spend a lot of time on the road visiting clients, but will work as part of a team of other salespersons under supervision. They have a strong focus on building and nurturing lasting relationships with clients as opposed to making sales directly to end consumers.

Delivery and Structure

Delivery underpins our philosophy that work is the learning and learning is the work. We deliver a combination of formal training sessions and mentoring. We utilise a mix of on-the-job observation and questioning, and workplace-based projects throughout our assessment tasks.

Participants are encouraged to challenge their existing knowledge and extend their boundaries whilst they expand their skill base.

To successfully attain the SIR30316 Certificate III in Business to Business Sales students are required to complete a total of ten (10) units of competency, comprising of:

Business to Business Sales
